

2024 IACP Cookbook Awards Revised Edition Affidavit

This form must accompany any submission entered into the 2024 IACP Cookbook Awards as a revised edition of a book. The majority (more than 50%) of the reissue must be new material, and five copies of the edition prior to the current revision must accompany the entry.

The publisher must complete this form in order to meet eligibility criteria. Should a question arise regarding an entry, the publisher agrees by his/her signature to submit any documentation deemed necessary for review. Inability to provide this documentation will disqualify a book for entry as a revised edition.

Book Title (include edition number):

Previous Edition Title:

Please briefly explain how this edition demonstrates more than 50% new material compared to the previous edition. (For example, added chapters, etc.) You may submit a separate letter if you wish.

To my full knowledge, the book entered into the 2023 IACP Cookbook Awards meets the qualifications as a revised edition, with the majority of the material in this edition being new compared to the previous edition.
